

Information on: The Tropical Savannas CRC

Tropical Savannas CRC website www.savanna.cdu.edu.au

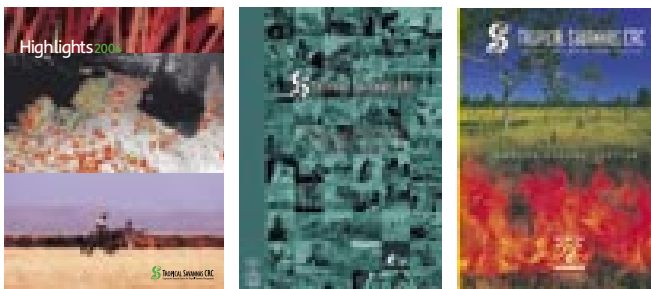

The Tropical Savannas CRC's website provides information on the CRC's mission and organisation, its research programs, its publications and educational activities. It is also a gateway to the various NRM websites developed by the CRC (see next page).

The website sections are:

- The Centre (describes the CRC Program, our mission, our staff, our structure and our partners)
- Research (describes our research themes, projects and methods)
- Education & Training (describes our education and training programs)
- Savanna Information (gateway to web-based information on the tropical savannas, see page 3)
- News & Events (articles and news from around the savannas; a calendar of NRM events and media releases)
- Publications with the  symbol can be downloaded free from the website. Go to www.savanna.cdu.edu.au or go to the Publications or Savanna Information sections to see our latest outputs.

Tropical Savannas CRC Annual Reports

Annual reports are available from the first round of the Tropical Savannas CRC (1995–2001) and from the CRC's second round, 2001 to the present. They summarise the achievements of the CRC for each financial year starting June 30 1995. They include descriptions of each project and Theme, publications and tools produced, major highlights, summaries of student projects, media and other communication activities.

These reports can be downloaded from the TS-CRC website as pdfs, go to savanna.cdu.edu.au/publications

TS-CRC highlights documents are also available.
